

THE BUDDHA PROJECT

What does a real Buddha look like?

How can I find my Buddha nature, have fun with clay, and help all beings at the same time?

For the answers to these questions, you are invited to come to Anita Feng's pottery studio where we will make clay Buddhas.

Open Studio times: Saturday, May 2, 1-5pm or Sunday, May 3, 1-5pm. Come when you like, make as many Buddhas as you like, stay as long as you like....donations will be accepted to offset cost of materials. For more information and to get directions to Anita's studio please contact her directly at fenganita@gmail.com
