7-Day Non-Residential Sesshin

A week-long meditation retreat in the Zen Buddhist tradition with Lee Shields & Madelon Bolling

When From 6:45pm Saturday September 10, through 12:00 noon Saturday September 17, 2022. Attending this retreat part-time is acceptable; part-time participants are asked to-commit themselves when registering to the blocks they will sit.

Where/how This retreat will be hybrid with participation by Zoom and in person. The retreat will be held at Dharma Gate -- 1920 24th Ave. S., Seattle, 98144. All participants who have not done a virtual retreat with TTS should arrange for orientation ahead of time through TTSSangha@gmail.com. Dokusan with Lee and interviews with Madelon will be available. We ask that attendees meet with only one teacher during this retreat.

Cost Fees are suggested amounts, with sliding scale available. Payment is due in full upon registration to reserve space. The full amount will be refunded (minus any PayPal fees incurred) if cancellation is received by September 3. After that date, a $50 cancellation fee as well as any PayPal fees incurred will apply. If you register and begin to have doubts or second thoughts, please arrange to speak with Lee before cancelling. Payment plans and sliding scale may be arranged with the registrar (see below). All payments must be in US currency.

- Regular and Supporting Members, full time: $300 (dues must be current to qualify for this rate).
- Non-Members, full time: $350
- Members & Non-Members, part time $45/day
- If you are able, please add a donation for scholarships. Thanks!*

Notes Dana for the teacher supports Lee and Madelon personally, and should be sent to them directly (click here).

Dana for Three Treasures Sangha allows us to pay Lee and Madelon salaries, provide retreat scholarships and maintain our Seattle facility. We are grateful for all donations, which can be made through PayPal on our website (click here).
